B: Bonus System

Sponsor Bonus (calculated and issued daily)

1. When you sell packages or products to new distributors, you can immediately get 15% of the BV of the package as a sponsor bonus.
2. Bonus issuing: Bonus is shown as soon as the payment for the sales is received, and it will be issued on the first business day after 7 business days (bonus issuing date may vary in some countries).

IMC

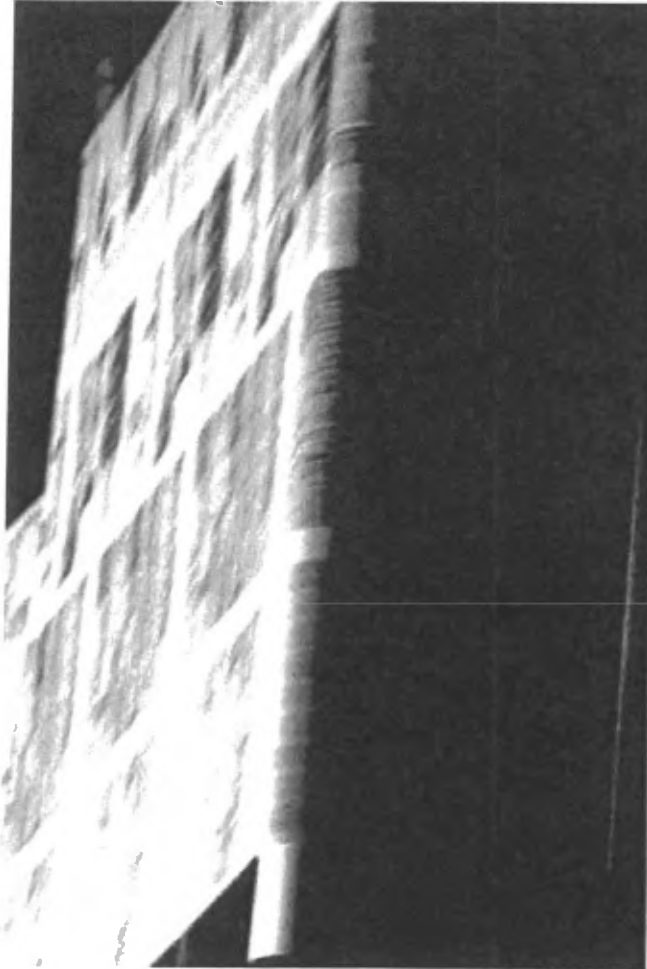

2 : Binary Bonus (calculated daily and issued weekly)

Binary Bonus is calculated based on the sales of the smaller track of one's underlines below his/her Business Center. Bonus rate differs based on different packages purchased when joining:

Packages	$1000	$2000	$5000	$10000	$30000
Bonus Percentage	8%	8%	10%	12%	15%
Daily Maximum	$1000	$2000	$5000	$10000	$30000

Requirements for issuing Binary Bonuses:

1. Sponsor directs one distributor to both the left and right sides of your organization.
2. Join and make payment for the joining package. 8 weeks after joining, make repetitive consumption every 4 weeks (i.e., 4-week is one cycle). If one fails to make repetitive consumption on time, his/her new sales will be disregarded and existing sales will be zeroed out.
3. If a distributor you have sponsored quits or fails to pay web maintenance service fee, he/she will not be a distributor any more, and your sponsorship will be considered as unqualified. You would need to sponsor another distributor within 28 days (i.e., one cycle) to re-validate your previous sponsorship and to keep your Binary Bonus (your Binary Bonus will be kept during the cycle of the 28 days).
4. Make web maintenance service fee payment on time ($100/year).
5. Sales are calculated daily, and bonus issued weekly. The calculation period for bonus calculation is from 00:00 Monday to 24:00 Sunday, Pacific Standard Time. Bonus will be issued on the Thursday two weeks after the calculation period ends. (The bonus is calculated on Monday after 10 cooling-off days; and then the bonus issued on Thursday).

Features of Binary Bonus System:

3. Recurring Bonus (calculated and issued every four weeks)

1. This bonus is generated from 50% of the sales from recurring consumption of the distributor, including Auto-ship orders and online purchases.
2. A qualified distributor can get Recurring Bonuses from his/her 12 generations in his/her lineal organization. Bonus is calculated by organizational sales and ratio of each generation.
3. Bonus ratio of each generation:
 - 20% of the 1st generation
 - 10% of the 2nd to 6th generation
 - 5% of the 7th to 12th generation
4. 10% of each distributor's revenue goes automatically to recurring consumption, and minimum consumption for each distributor is $100 per cycle.
5. No empty point is allowed in bonus calculation; upward compression method will be used in bonus calculation.
6. Bonus calculation period is every four weeks, and, the bonus is issued on the Friday one week after the ending of the bonus calculation period.
7. The greatest features of the Recurring Bonus are: no limit for maximum bonus amount, no ceiling for possible bonus amount, no zeroing out for bonus, stable income, and assurance for continuous bonuses.
